Re: Environmental Finding- Documented Categorical Exclusion, Post Oak Boulevard
Reconstruction with Dedicated Bus Lanes, Houston, Texas

Dear Mr. Breeding:

The Federal Transit Administration (FTA) has reviewed your request for concurrence in a Categorical Exclusion (CE) for the proposed reconstruction of Post Oak Boulevard with Dedicated Bus Lanes (DBL) in Houston, Harris County, Texas.

As part of the environmental record, FTA recognizes the no historic properties will be affected concurrence date of March 7, 2014 by the Texas Historical Commission. The FTA finds that the project is a CE in accordance with 23 CFR 771.118(d). Should you have any questions regarding this environmental finding, please contact Laura Wallace, Community Planner, at (817) 978-0561.

Sincerely,

for Robert C. Patrick
Regional Administrator
